

Year Three Communication and Homework for Week Eleven Term One 2018

Hi Parents/Caregivers. Well the term has come to an end. Despite the short week, we have done a few small preparations for testing. I want Year Three students to feel comfortable and have them ready for a test situation without any surprises. Therefore, we have moved desks and started practicing filling out some sample test papers, including shading bubbles correctly and reading questions thoroughly. Again, the whole idea is for students to get an idea of what they will be doing during NAPLAN without the stress.

We are well under way with our Arts Program and with the 'Melted' Musical. Thanks to staff and especially for Mrs Bachelor for her efforts so far. A letter will go out today in regards to our money unit beginning in Term Two.

For Homework this week, I would like students to continue to change their readers and practice their times tables and Chinese language. We will be back on board with weekly homework, Week One, Term Two.

Due to my absence in Week Eleven this term, I would like to take this time to say thanks to our families for helping your child with their learning in Term One. We look forward to a very busy and exciting Term Two. Have a safe and happy holiday.

Kind Regards

Lyn Poharama and the Year Three Team
