Now for something different – Try writing a few DIARY entries in your homework book – A diary is simply a recount of events that have happened in your life. See below for an example (you may wish to write a day-by-day diary or simply a whole week recount). It does not have to be too detailed, nor do you have to recount every event. Include ‘rich’ language.

Monday 26th March 2018 – Today I woke up, went for a quick run and then I attended school from 8:00am to 2:35pm. After school I went to the local shopping centre (Boulevard Shopping Centre) with Mum and my brother. When I got home, I jumped on the trampoline, helped Dad with the cooking and watched Home and Away on television. After that I went to bed. It was a fairly ordinary day.

PARTICIPATION / EXPERIMENTAL ACTIVITIES: In the following table, choose a few tasks and complete the activity. The white square is compulsory! If you have chosen a research topic, try and prepare a 2-3 minute talk / presentation that you can provide to the Year 5 class. You may / or may not be chosen to do this.
